

Curriculum Overview

PART 1: Thinking Through our Foundations

1. Thinking through the Trinity and absolute personality theism
2. Thinking through the Creator-creature distinction
3. Augustine and the intellectual impact of the fall
4. Away Day: Revelation, Scripture and hermeneutics
5. Our twofold mission as Christians in the university
6. The redemption of creation: Christ as the Last Adam
7. An integrated evangelical vision: foundations for gospel-shaped engagement

PART 2: From Christ to our Work: Christian Scholarship

1. Contributing to our faculties (a): the vocation of the Christian scholar
2. Contributing to our faculties (b): understanding our times - critical theory
3. Contributing to our faculties (b): from theory to practice - ethics
4. Contributing to our faculties: (c) science and religion
5. Contributing to our faculties: (d) social sciences: moral order and human flourishing
6. Contributing to our faculties: (e) the Arts and Christianity
7. Discussion of Fellows' essays - part 1
8. Discussion of Fellows' essays - part 2

PART 3: From our Work to Christ: A Persuasive Cultural Apologetic

1. Giving glory to God through our work: worship and evangelism
2. Ultimate ends: seeing Christ as the (subversive) fulfilment of our faculty's culture
3. Case study 1: drawing on your discipline to introduce and commend the gospel
4. Case study 2 - drawing on your discipline to introduce and commend the gospel
5. Effective oral communication for public engagement
6. Commending the gospel in a postmodern culture
7. Fellows' practice public presentations
8. Away Day